Introduction

Austin Rhetoric Club (ARC) is a Christian family speech and debate club, parent-run and student-led. ARC is affiliated with NCFCA, a Christian speech and debate league. Our goal and vision is to have the students learn how to communicate from a Biblical worldview in an articulate, winsome manner that glorifies God. It is our intention to provide homeschool families with learning experiences that the entire family can enjoy together.

We concentrate on preparing our 12-18 year-old students. Children under 12 years old can compete in junior speech events. Parents are expected to attend club meetings, learn alongside their children, critique speeches and debates, judge, teach, and offer encouragement. When the club sponsors tournaments or workshops, parents also volunteer with tasks pertaining to these events. Parents of juniors are expected to help lead the juniors program.

Club meetings are on Fridays from 3:45 pm to approximately 8:00 pm. We meet at a facility in the north Austin/Cedar Park area. Meetings generally start with speech, followed by dinner, and conclude with debate. Dinner is approximately 5:45 to 6:30 pm.

“Let no one look down on your youthfulness, but rather in speech, conduct, love, faith and purity, show yourself an example of those who believe.” ~1 Timothy 4:12

Mission

We believe that formal speech and debate can provide a means for homeschool students to learn and exercise analytical and oratorical skills, addressing life issues from a Biblical worldview in a manner that glorifies God. In order to provide these opportunities to homeschool students and their parents, we facilitate club meetings, workshops, and practice tournaments in the Austin area. Families are encouraged to attend various workshops and tournaments.

Statement of Faith

The Holy Scriptures, as contained in the sixty-six books of Old Testament and New Testament, are the inerrant written Word of God and are His complete and sufficient revelation to mankind. Therefore, we make every effort to structure our club according to the biblical mandate. We are not perfect, but we are always reforming (Deuteronomy 4:2; 12:32; Proverbs 30:6; 2 Timothy 3:16-17; Hebrews 1:1-2; 2 Peter 1:20-21; Revelation 22:19).

We believe that there is one living and true God (Deuteronomy 6:4), eternally existing (Psalm 90:2; Revelation 1:8) in three Persons: the Father, the Son (Jesus Christ), and the Holy Spirit (Matthew 3:16-17); that this triune God created all (Genesis 1:1-6), upholds all (Hebrews 1:3), and governs all (Matthew 28:18; Colossians 2:10).

We believe that man was created in the image and likeness of God, and is therefore unique among all creation (Genesis 1:26-27), and that Adam and Eve fell into sin (Genesis 3:1-7), resulting in death, broken fellowship with God, and a sinful nature which has been inherited by all mankind (Genesis 3:23-24; Psalm 51:5; Romans 5:12).

We believe that justification (the act of declaring one to be righteous, or without sin) is a judicial act of God on the believer's behalf (Romans 8:33), based solely on the merits of Christ (1 Peter 3:18; 1 John 1:7, 2:2), and that being born anew by the power of the Holy Spirit into God's family is absolutely essential for personal salvation (John 3:3-7; Titus 3:5). We believe that salvation is wholly of God by grace alone through faith alone on the basis of the redeeming work of Jesus Christ and not on the basis of human merit or works (John 1:12; Ephesians 2:8-9).

We believe in the biblical design for marriage, family, and sexuality (1 Corinthians 7:2; Matthew 19:4), biblical morality (Ephesians 5:3; 1 Thessalonians 4:3), the sanctity of life (Psalm 139:13-16) and the protection of our children both before and after birth (Matthew 18:5-6; Mark 9:42; Luke 17:2). We affirm NCFCA's Position Statements.

Christianity is not merely a religion; it is also a lifestyle and worldview. We are to think biblically about every aspect of our lives (Romans 12:1-2; II Corinthians 10:5-6; Colossians 2:8; 1 Peter 1:14-16).

Leadership

ARC is parent-run and student-led. We promote youth leadership while still maintaining parental involvement. ARC has both a board of directors, which is composed of select parents, and officers, which is made up of students who are given specific responsibilities.

Board of Directors

Mark and Cherri

Nathan and Tashan

Oscar and Wei-Chung

Officers

Officers are the student leaders of the club. They are each responsible for specific functions within ARC. All officers must be senior competitors who are committed and attend regularly. Certain positions require extra commitment, and those are noted. Every officer must deliver a speech on election night to be elected. The President will call officers meetings periodically. Each officer will serve for a one-year term and can be re-elected to the same office one time. A student can only hold one office at a time.

Membership

In order to become members of ARC, both parents are required to attend New Member Orientation and meet with members of the ARC board. The purpose of this meeting is to clarify the goals of ARC, the benefits received, and the responsibilities inherent in being active members. This will promote having successful years of learning and growing together as a club and community in the Lord Jesus Christ.

Please fill out the following two forms, which can be found at the end of this document, and bring with you to the New Member Orientation:

- ARC Membership Registration
- Parental Consent & Release of Liability

General requirements are listed below:

- Agree with our Statement of Faith. If you cannot affirm our Statement of Faith, may we respectfully recommend other clubs to you.
- The required non-refundable club membership fee is $150 per family per year.
- Join NCFCA as an affiliate. Although you may wait until the winter deadline to register, you might miss out on the early bird discount. The NCFCA affiliation fee is approximately $135-$160 per family.
- Parents are expected to attend club meetings, learn alongside their children, critique speeches, judge debates, teach, and offer encouragement. When the club sponsors tournaments or workshops, parents also volunteer with tasks pertaining to these events.
- Parents of juniors are expected to help lead the juniors program.
- All students and parents are required to attend the speech portion (3:45pm - 5:45pm) of weekly club meetings, including Apologetics lessons at club meetings, since a core value of ARC is to teach the students to accurately defend the biblical worldview.
- There may be an additional fee to cover the cost of coaching and/or software for students participating in debate or extemporaneous speech.
- All senior competitors are required to compete in 1 or more speech events in at least 2 tournaments every season.
- Competitors should consult with the ARC Board before committing to partnerships with students from other clubs. This applies to both Duo Interpretation and Team Policy Debate.

Code of Conduct

- We strive to imitate Christ in speech and in action. Club members are expected to treat each other with kindness, respect, and humility.
- We do not tolerate physical, verbal, emotional, sexual abuse or other inappropriate behavior at any time during ARC club meetings or events.
- The presence, possession, consumption or being under the influence of any illegal or illicit drugs or alcohol is prohibited.
- “More Than Two” Rule: Parents and chaperones should not enter a room where there is only one student present. In the same manner, a student should not enter a room where there is only one non-family adult present.
- Please be familiar with NCFCA’s Child-Safety Policy.
- Dress code for club meetings: At ARC club meetings, the spirit of the dress code is the same as that of NCFCA, just not as formal. Consider what professionalism looks like in a relaxed setting. Students should wear modest attire with the intent of glorifying God. Clothing should not be a distraction. ARC leaders reserve the right to ask students to change clothing. Prohibited clothing include:
 - Clothes that are see-through, tight-fitting, or display inappropriate content
 - Tops that are low-cut, fail to cover shoulders or midriff, or expose undergarments
 - Shorts that are shorter than fingertip length when standing
 - Skirts or dresses that are shorter than 3 inches above the knee
 - Leggings or yoga pants, except those worn under shorts, skirts, or dresses
 - Pants with holes/tears above fingertip length when standing
